

Welcome to our sports facilities. We endeavour to make sure that all our guests can make optimum use of the available facilities. For this reason we have drawn up certain rules and regulations. We request you to read and observe these regulations.

Optisport rules and regulations

Inflatable armbands are obligatory for any child under 12 years old. These must comply with the NEN-EN 13138-1 safety standards. Other floating aids are permissible providing they too meet the aforementioned standards. Never lose sight of your child. Inflatable armbands are no guarantee against drowning.

Individuals under 18 years old who do not possess a swimming proficiency certificate are only permitted to enter the pool under supervision from an adult (min. 18 years) in swimwear and who is a proficient swimmer.

Visitors without such a certificate are only permitted to enter the shallow baths. To enable recognition, these individuals and their chaperones are required to wear an orange wristband. The chaperone must be over 18 years old (in swimwear) and a proficient swimmer. Entrance will be denied should the visitors refuse to wear the orange wristbands or arrive unaccompanied.

Inappropriate and/or consensual intimacy within these sport facilities is not tolerated.

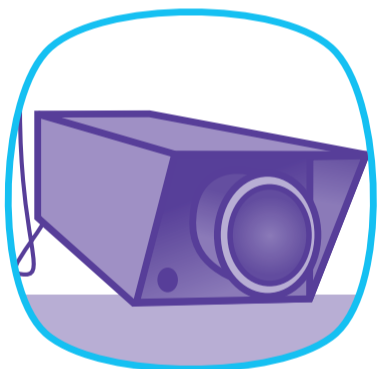

In the interests of safety in the pool area, sporting facilities and sunbathing areas only plastic bottles and glasses are permitted.
